OUR 2018 DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES
Election Day is Tuesday, Nov. 6th. Polls are open from 7AM to 8PM.

BOB CASEY - Since becoming in 2006 the first Pennsylvania Democrat elected to a full Senate term since 1962, he has worked to create family-sustaining jobs and foster financial security for Pennsylvania families; to protect our children and invest in their futures; to ensure safety at home and respect for America abroad; to promote honesty and accountability in government; to preserve the dignity of the vulnerable of all ages; and to advocate for his constituents and help them solve problems they face.

He is a voice for those who are threatened by Congressional Republicans' recent attempts to give tax cuts to the ultra-rich and to undermine Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid. Learn more at BobCasey.com.

CHRISSE HOULAHAN - A long time resident of Easttown Township, is running for the newly redistricted, US Congress 6th District. Chrissy earned her engineering degree from Stanford with a ROTC scholarship and received her M.S. in Technology and Policy from MIT. She served three years active duty as a Captain in the US Air Force, and 13 years in the Reserves.

She served as the Chief Operation Officer of AND1 Basketball, helping transform the company from a startup to a major apparel and footwear brand with sales over $100 million. Always interested in science and the education of children, Chrissy then went to work as a chemistry teacher in North Philadelphia and was a Teach for America Corps member.

She was also the founding COO of B-Lab (a nonprofit that promotes B Corporations and good business practices) and President and COO/CFO for Springboard Collaborative (a Philadelphia-based nonprofit focused on improving early childhood literacy in under served communities country-wide). Learn more at ChrissyHoulahanForCongress.com.

TOM WOLF - The current governor of Pennsylvania, and long time successful executive from York, PA, Tom is running for reelection. While in office, he has prohibited administration employees from accepting gifts from lobbyists, reformed legal contracting to end pay to play, restored the one billion dollar cut to education made in the previous administration, and has given more than 50,000 seniors the opportunity to age in their homes.

Tom is dedicated to ensuring that Pennsylvanians have access to quality and affordable health care. That's why one of his first acts in office was to expand Medicaid which has given an additional 720,000 Pennsylvanians access to health care and he increased enrollment in CHIP by twenty percent. The governor's actions have reduced Pennsylvania's uninsured rate well below the national average to its lowest point in history.

Working hard to protect our seniors, Tom has increased opportunities for older Pennsylvanians to remain in their homes, stood up to Donald Trump's proposed "age tax" on insurance, and has saved more than 180,000 seniors from losing their Medicare Advantage health plans. He's also worked across the aisle to move long-stalled legislation like medical marijuana legalization, liquor modernization, and pension reform. Learn more at WolfForPA.com.

JOHN FETTERMAN - A twelve year mayor from Braddock, PA, John is running for Lieutenant Governor of Pennsylvania. While mayor, John worked to build and bring Braddock back from the verge of extinction. He's applied a hands-on approach and his service experience to rebuild the community, bringing creative urban policy solutions to Braddock. He has worked with young people and artists to transform creative spaces downtown, and turned abandoned properties into urban gardens.

John has worked to attract new residents and new jobs, as more than a dozen businesses have relocated into Braddock and the population has stabilized for the first time in decades. He is most gratified, though, by breaking the cycle of violence in his community that culminated with nearly 5 ½ years without the taking of a life. Learn more at JohnFetterman.com.

TIM KEARNEY - A two term mayor of Swarthmore with a history of progressive achievements, Tim is running for the state senate. A long-time resident and lifelong progressive Democrat, he believes that every child in Pennsylvania, no matter their zip code, deserves a first-class public education.

As State Senator, he'll make sure that out-of-state corporations and special interests pay their fair share, and will stand up to Republicans who keep balancing the state budget on the backs of Pennsylvania's working and middle class. Outraged over Republican legislators' eagerness to sacrifice Pennsylvania's magnificent natural resources in service to industry greed also drives his campaign. Tim will fight special interests to make sure every Pennsylvanian has clean water to drink and clean air to breathe. Learn more at TimKearney4PA.com.

KRISTINE HOWARD - An accomplished lawyer and social worker for Chester County, Kristine is running for the state house. Kristine spent most of the last decade working for progressive candidates and serving as a Democratic committee person from Malvern while balancing the responsibilities of work and single-mother parenting. After working her way through the University of Pennsylvania and law school at Rutgers in Camden, she married and spent five years in New Mexico, where she ran a small legal and social services organization while her family grew. After returning to Pennsylvania, she focused on raising her seven children while working for Philadelphia Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts and acting as an advocate for children in foster care.

She now works for the County investigating child abuse cases. Her experiences as a social worker, mother and political activist came together in her decision to run for State Representative. She'll focus on strong and safe public schools and supports common sense gun laws. Learn more at KristineHoward.com.
